Pastor Robert's Reflections

September has come, students young and old are making their way back into their classrooms, the weather is cooling down, indoor related activities are ramping back up, and soon nearly every male (and a few females as well) will disappear into tackily decorated basements where they will plant their rear ends upon a cushy lazy boy recliner or couch for the duration of the weekend, oh and I forgot pumpkin flavored everything. Yes these are the signs of the fall that precede the annual changing of the leaves.

Fall is a special time of year for families as they begin to settle down into their "regular" routine, even as they are continuing to try and figure out exactly what that "regular" routine is going to look like this year. So as we sign up for various programs, volunteer opportunities, and classes we need to be good stewards of our time and make sure that we do not put ourselves on a fast track to burn-out.

The key to being a good steward of your time is to remember that it is ok to say no. We can't do everything. There are many things that we want to do, things we have to do, and a few things we should do, and it is up to us to prioritize and get rid of those things that are not necessary.

Here in the church we often talk about Stewardship in regards to money but that is just one piece of what stewardship is really about. Stewardship is about how we live our lives in a way that takes care of ourselves and others. Here within the church and elsewhere many people will ask you to do many different things, and if you are able to do them great! Because hopefully your efforts will help others in some small or big way, but if you're not able to help that is ok as well.

Ask yourself; who can you help if you are burned

Come One, Come All Noon on September 23rd

Join us for Climate Café's Kids Kitchen inaugural meal and program—happening HERE at Prince of Life! On September 23 at noon, folks will sit down at the table together in the fellowship hall, for a delicious, nutritious low carbon footprint, plant-based meal that is lovingly planted, harvested, prepared and served ecumenically and intergenerationally for the healing of the planet and the health of the people.

Climate Café is a grassroots effort to address climate crisis, simply by changing the way we eat. We use only locally and regeneratively grown produce to provide the tasty dishes we offer. Kids' Kitchen is a model for bringing youth into the foreground of the climate solution. All of this is done in the context of a "gift economy"—as in the book of Acts when the early Christians shared everything in common—so that those who cannot afford it can still partake of the high-quality organic produce that forms the basis of the meal.

Come taste and see the grace-filled goodness of being and sharing together!!

out both physically and mentally? Remember only you know what your limits are and remember that God is with you always and that before agreeing to something, or discarding something bring that decision to God. God has a way of showing us what truly is important and what can be put aside, at least temporarily.

"As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. Whoever speaks, is to do so as one who is speaking the utterances of God; whoever serves is to do so as one who is serving by the strength which God supplies; so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen."- 1 Peter 4:10-11

Child, Youth, and Family Service Committee

Our CYF meeting this past month was short. In an effort to not lose momentum, we met for half an hour to touch base on what is happening.

As I mentioned last month, Clackamas County Children's Commission (Head Start) is continuing to explore partnering together to build a building with classrooms on our property. Not much can happen in August till several other building/renovation projects are completed. September is when we will have more forward movement in our exploration.

Clackamas County Children's Commission invited us to attend their first annual community event, "Chairs for Children," to be held on October 7, 2023 at 5PM. They are celebrating 50 years of service to the community with Head Start. Their invitations reads:

"Our theme is 'Chairs for Children' because every little seat in our classrooms holds big stories of the children and families that have grown with us throughout the years.

"As a tribute, our live auction will showcase the work of local artists who have created artistic interpretations of their favorite childhood stories, using retired wooden chairs from our early program days.

"It will be a night of inspiration, great food, excellent wine, entertainment, live and silent auctions, and most importantly... FUN!"

"Darcee Kilsdonk, Executive Director says "I'm so excited to share all that we've accomplished and our hopes and dreams for the future."

Our committee's goal is to fill a table of 8 with members of our congregation. If we need a second table to accommodate everyone who would like to attend, we will do that.

Please call Janet Mann at 503-819-9858 or email janet.mann@q.com if you would like to join us at this special event.

Backpack Buddies

It is time to kick off the beginning of a new school year with our Backpack Buddies program!

We deliver bags of food each week to students at Gaffney Lane Elementary School who have been identified by school staff as qualifying for additional food on the weekends. These children receive 14-15 nutritious food items.

If you would like to participate in a special assembly or if you would like to deliver bags, please contact Cathy Warner through her email at clwarner1@gmail.com.

If you would like to donate any food items, we regularly pack the following items:

Oatmeal packets

Juice boxes

Snacks

(such as granola bars, fruit snacks, crackers, etc.)

Soup, tuna fish, spaghetti-o's

Individual meals in a pop-top can, etc.

Fruit cups

All of these items can be left in the closet in the Conference Room.

Thank you

Cathy Warner

Join us as we explore our relationship with Earth and find ways to take action, including in our congregations.

It is urgent that we recognize that our well-being as human beings is intimately connected with the well-being of Earth and all its inhabitants. Dr. Mark Brocker, former pastor of St. Andrew Lutheran Church in Beaverton, will lead this eight-week live online course based on his book, Coming Home to Earth. Dr. Brocker is especially concerned about what will motivate people of faith to take action. Love of God, love of neighbor, love of creation and love of self are classic core values in our faith tradition that motivate us to act. As always, this course will provide opportunities for relationship-building, critical thinking and spiritual practice. To register for the course, go to oregonsynod.org and search under "Events."

In Gratitude

I thank all of you who prayed for me before, during and following my surgery in July. During a recent phone conversation with my urologist, I was told the malignancy in the tissue he removed from my bladder was low-grade and non-invasive. I am deeply grateful for the medical team at Kaiser as well as your expression of support.
