Pastor's Press: Grace and Stewardship: Living the Gift We've Received

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

One Sunday a few years ago, as the ushers brought up the offering plates, I noticed a small envelope tucked inside – I asked to see it later. It wasn't heavy—inside was a child's hand-drawn picture of a cross, with the words, "Thank you, Jesus." There was no money, but the gift was priceless. It reminded me that stewardship begins not with the size of what we give, but with the heart that gives it.

Grace at the Center

In Christ, we've already been given more than we could ever repay. The cross was not a loan; it was a gift. As Lutherans, we know our giving doesn't buy God's favor—it flows from the favor we already have in Christ. St. Paul puts it this way: "You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor..." (2 Cor. 8:9).

Law and Gospel in Our Giving

The Law shows us how easily we cling to our time, talents, and treasure as if they were ours alone. The Gospel sets us free—free to give without fear, because our worth isn't measured by what we keep, but by what Christ has already done for us.

What Stewardship Looks Like Here at Prince of Life

- Time: Helping set up for fellowship hour, visiting a homebound neighbor, or showing up faithfully for outside -of-worship events and programs.
- Talents: Sharing music in worship, teaching youth, quilting and building.
- Treasure: Supporting our ministries through tithing to bring the Gospel outside our walls, and so that those in need have a little more.

Imagine This Together...

Picture our congregation if every gift God placed in our hands was offered freely:

- Our food pantry shelves are full and overflowing into the community.
- Our building buzzing with neighbors coming and going into this safe space.
- Our name being proclaimed as a place where Jesus and neighbor are loved and served.

This isn't just a dream—it's what happens when grace fuels generosity.

One Small Step This Week

I invite you to choose one tangible way to live out stewardship in the coming days:

- Bring canned goods to Sunday's service to place in the shopping cart for the food pantry.
- Write a note of encouragement to someone you haven't seen in worship lately or who is homebound.

- Take ten minutes each morning to thank God for the gifts and ask how God would have you use them in this coming season.

Let's be known not only for believing the Gospel, but for living it in a way that makes our neighbors wonder about the source of our joy.

In Christ's service,
Pastor Sena Norton

Social Justice Committee—Upcoming Cluster Tea

As mentioned last month, we met in August on 8/17/25 and planned for a Cluster Social Justice Tea on Saturday 9/20/25 from 2-4PM. We're planning to have each congregation share what their Social Justice committee is working on. We decided the best way to make sure we have more congregations represented was to send out an invitation with an RSVP so we could get an idea how many congregations were planning to attend. That was sent by email on Wednesday 8/20/25, which gives them a month notice before the Tea.

If any of you know members of one of our Cluster churches, would you please talk to them and make sure they received the invitation? Tell them what some of the things Prince of Life does and ask them if they have a Social Justice Committee or something else that is similar.

Oregon Trail Cluster Churches include Christ in Aurora, Colton in Colton, Community of Hope in Wilsonville, Creator in Clackamas, Spirit of Life in Gladstone, Macksburg in Canby, Milwaukie in Milwaukie, Our Savior's in Lake Oswego, West Linn in West Linn, Zion in Oregon City, and Zoar in Canby.

We are contacting members of our congregation to give brief presentations about what Start Right, Backpack Buddies, Bunkbed Ministries, Piece by Piece Quilters, SON ministry, Climate Resilience as well as Child Care are doing. Anyone in our congregation can attend this Tea to hear what other Cluster Churches are doing too.

Building Grace-filled Stewardship – Weekly Devotions

Week 1 — Grace at the Start

“From His fullness we have all received, grace upon grace.” – John 1:16

Every act of Christian generosity begins here: God has already given us everything. Our lives, our salvation, our daily bread—all flow from His loving hand. Stewardship is not an obligation to earn His favor, but a joy-filled response to it.

Prayer: Lord, teach me to see all I have as a gift from You. Shape my giving to reflect Your grace. Amen.

Live It Out: Keep a “gratitude list” this week. Each entry is a reminder of God’s generosity.

Week 2 — The Freedom to Give

“It is for freedom that Christ has set us free.” – Galatians 5:1

The Law may reveal our reluctance to give, but the Gospel sets us free from fear. No gift you offer can make God love you more—yet each gift becomes a sign of His love at work in you.

Prayer: Gracious Redeemer, free me from the grip of fear or scarcity. Let my giving be a song of thanksgiving. Amen.

Live It Out: Give one “hidden gift” this week—an anonymous act of kindness for someone in need.

Week 3 — Time, Talent, Treasure

“As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another.” – 1 Peter 4:10

God’s grace is multi-faceted: it shows up in your hours, your abilities, and your resources. Every moment you volunteer, every skill you share, every dollar you give—it’s all grace in motion.

Prayer: Lord of all gifts, take my time, my skills, and my resources. Use them for Your glory and my neighbor’s good. Amen.

Live It Out: Choose one area—time, talent, or treasure—and intentionally offer it to bless another this week.

Week 4 — Grace Overflowing

“And God is able to make all grace abound to you... so you may abound in every good work.” – 2 Corinthians 9:8

When we open our hands, we discover that God keeps filling them. His grace never runs dry, and neither does the potential for His people to bless the world.

Prayer: Generous Holy One, make my life a vessel that overflows with Your grace. Let Your blessings pass through me to others. Amen.

Live It Out: Invite someone to join you in a small act of generosity—show them the joy of giving together.

Thank you! Thank you!

During the mornings from August 11th through the 15th many volunteers gathered in our Prince of Life Fellowship Room to assemble 1450 packs of school supplies for students in grades K-12 and then deliver them to Clackamas County's Department of Human Services referral agencies for distribution to foster families and families needing support to start the 2025-2026 school year right.

Thank you so much for your incredible support of this ministry with gifts of time, monetary support and prayer. Our congregation partners with many churches, businesses, senior residence facilities and charitable organizations in our county to purchase the supplies and prepare them for distribution. Your faithful participation makes all of this possible. Thank you so much!

September Green Planet

Companies that sell packaged products are now financially responsible for helping the state collect and recycle that packaging. The change in law aims to modernize Oregon's recycling system, expand access — especially in rural areas — and ensure companies help cover the costs of recycling the materials they produce.
